Tim and Poni started with Mannatech in early 1999 with no experience operating a Home Based Business. In the beginning, Tim and Poni worked extremely hard but were failing miserably. They learned the hard way the critical lessons to leverage their time with tools and technology.

After struggling to the brink of failure for the first few months, they launched a path of success in late 1999 by implementing weekly conference calls and using technology. This enabled them to sort through the masses for people that were willing to follow a simple system and improve their lives.

Their business exploded in the year 2000 and continues to grow at an incredible pace. Now, more than ever, they realize how critical it is to have a simple system that anyone can utilize.

Tim has written many training articles that have been published in various Business Building Newsletters. He's regarded as one of the top industry trainers. He shares some of this innovative training on websites such as www.best-method.com and www.goldenkeys.net

Tim and Poni have 2 children Destiny and Riannan and live near West Palm Beach, FL (For now :) They travel the world teaching and training people that Success Leaves Clues and how to USE those Clues to reach goals and Dreams!
